[QG10Q1] Country name:	The Republic of Lithuania
[QG10Q2] Organization or entity responsible for the preparation of the report:	Ministry of Education, Science and Sport
[QG11Q1] Is your country a State Party to the Convention?	No [N]
[QG11Q11] Does your country plan to ratify this instrument?	No, not considering ratification in the near future. Please explain why: [A2] The majority of the statements in the UNESCO Convention are not relevant anymore and do not meet more advanced legal regulation, currently in force in Lithuania, compared to that, which is established in the Convention, adopted in 1960. Both the EU and the Council of Europe, a member of which Lithuania is, raise higher requirements/standards, related to the implementation of the human rights and non-discrimination in education. Both the Lithuanian legal base and the existing international obligations currently ensure an adequate implementation of these rights and the principle of non-discrimination in education.

[r425q2] Have legislative measures been taken pursuant to the Recommendation?	Yes [A1]
[r425q2_comment] Have legislative measures been taken pursuant to the Recommendation? (Comment)	Article 41 of the Constitution establishes that education is compulsory for persons under the age of 16, education at state and municipal schools of general education, vocational schools, and schools of further education is free of charge. Higher education is accessible to everyone according to individual abilities. Well performing students shall be guaranteed education at state higher education institutions free of charge. The Law on Education of the Republic of Lithuania establishes the principles upon which the educational system is based, one of them is equal opportunities – the educational system is socially fair, it ensures the implementation of person’s rights, it guarantees the access to education for all, the attainment of a general education level and a primary qualification, and creates conditions to develop the acquired qualification or gain a new one. This law also establishes the right and duty of all residents to study, indicating that each citizen and alien, who has the right of permanent or temporary residence in the Republic of Lithuania, has the right to study, attain an education level and a qualification. Compulsory pre-school education begins when a child reaches the age of 6 in that calendar year. Pre-school education can be provided earlier by the decision of the parents (guardians), but not earlier than the child reaches the age of 5.

In

2013–2014 school year 97 percent of 6 years old children were included in institutional education (pre-school, pre-primary or primary education programs). In 2015 amendments to the Law on Education were adopted and from 1st September, 2016 pre-primary education became compulsory. The aim was to give more equal start in formal education for all children, especially ones from vulnerable families or having other difficulties and learning needs. Seeing that the participation in early childhood education has significant long-term benefits not only for the child's development but also for further development for a person's life it was an obvious ambition. Most challenging to implement these changes were in bigger cities, because additional funding was needed for the infrastructure and also for teachers and their qualification development needs.

Pursuant to the program of the Government of the Republic of Lithuania, in order to strengthen teacher training, 3 Teacher Training Centers were established in 2018, study programs are renewed, study infrastructure is being developed and modernized. By increasing the attractiveness of pedagogical studies, from 2020 all students of pedagogical programs are provided an increased scholarships. A teacher of pre-school, pre-primary and general education program teacher needs at least a bachelor's degree and a teacher's qualification. The teacher must also have completed a study program in that subject or pedagogical specialization. Improving the working conditions of teachers, salaries are increased by 10% every year. From 1 September 2020 the salaries of pre-school and pre-primary teachers are equal to the salaries of general education teachers. At the present, teachers' salaries reach 102 percent of the national average wage. Educational leadership measures are being implemented. Following the introduction of the terms of office of heads of educational institutions, in order to attract competent managers, an action plan was prepared, which provides a system of support for the beginning manager: mentoring, study programs models in higher education institutions, access to the legal services, etc.

[QG26Q2] Have there been instances of discrimination as regards the training for education personnel in your country?

[QG29Q11] Please provide a brief description of the provisions:

[QG29Q2] As regards the educational standards in educational institutions run

The protection of ethnic minorities is ensured according to the international and national law. In 2000, Lithuania ratified the Council of Europe's Framework Convention for the Protection of National Minorities, undertaking to take the necessary measures to ensure comprehensive and efficient promotion of equality among persons belonging to ethnic minorities and the ethnic majority in all areas of economic, social, political and cultural life.

Article 29 of the Constitution states that the rights of the human being may not be restricted, nor may he be granted any privileges on the ground of gender, race,

by minorities, please describe the existing legal and policy framework:

nationality, language, origin, social status, belief, convictions, or views. Article 45 of the Constitution states that ethnic communities of citizens manage the affairs of their ethnic culture, education, charity, and mutual assistance independently. Upon implementing its international and national obligations in protecting ethnic minorities, the Republic of Lithuania creates conditions for the representatives of ethnic minorities to learn at general education institutions in their mother tongue non-state language and learn their mother tongue, participate at children's non-formal education in their native language. Representatives of some ethnic minorities can study in their mother tongue from pre-school to university level. General education curricula and education plans ensure preconditions for ethnic minority pupils to learn their mother tongue language, also Lithuanian language and seek for educational results in line with their abilities. The specifics of organising the educational process, established in the educational plans enable to tailor the educational plan for the specifics of the school. The educational process differs based on the fact if the school has adopted lessons on the language of the ethnic minority and if the teaching takes place in the language of the ethnic minority. At schools, which have adopted teaching a language of an ethnic minority, it is taught according to a curriculum of a native language; other subjects, except for foreign languages, are taught in Lithuanian language; some of the electives can be taught in the language of the ethnic minority. At schools, where the learning takes place in the language of the ethnic minority, the general education curriculum is implemented using a bilingual method: in the language of the ethnic minority and Lithuanian language. Each school undertakes to offer a minimum amount of subjects, taught in Lithuanian language, as established by the legislation. The assessment of learning achievements of those learning according to general education programmes (matura examinations, other examinations, tests, etc.) is organised according to learning achievement assessment programs and procedures for the organisation and implementation of assessment of learning achievements, approved by the Minister of Education, Science and Sport, also pupil achievement surveys. These assessments of learning achievements are the same for pupils in schools of all languages of instruction, according to the principle of equal opportunity. All general education schools ensure Lithuanian language proficiency according to the general programme, approved by the Minister of Education, Science and Sport.

and policy framework that protects the right to quality education for refugees and migrants in your country:

According to the Law on Education of the Republic of Lithuania, municipalities must ensure activity of network of providers of primary, basic, secondary and non-formal education programs for children and adults, providing education and right to study in the state language. Thus, in Lithuania, teaching and learning are organized by municipalities. In the case of migrants, school-age migrants are provided opportunities to learn the Lithuanian language and integrate into Lithuanian society. Lietuvių namai is an educational institution for non-Lithuanian speaking students, where migrant students are taught the Lithuanian language and culture. Municipal schools create conditions for school-age children to learn the Lithuanian language in general education institutions where the educational process takes place in the Lithuanian mother tongue. There are also schools for students of Russian, Polish, German and Belarusian origin in Lithuania. According to the Law of the Republic of Lithuania on the Legal Status of Aliens (2004 April 29 No. IX-2206), one of the areas of integration of foreigners granted asylum in the Republic of Lithuania is education. The procedure for integration into the education system is established by the Resolution of Government of the Republic of Lithuania "On Approval of the Description of the Procedure for Providing State Support for the Integration of Asylum Seekers" (2016. October 5 No. 998). According this Resolution, the Refugee Reception Center organizes Lithuanian language courses for refugees for children and adults.

The launched renewal of the framework programs focuses on the development of competencies, including for refugees and immigrants, in order to create a more favorable teaching and learning environment. The Strategy for Demography, Migration and Integration Policy for 2018–2030 (hereinafter - the Strategy) has been developed and approved (Resolution No. XIII-1484 of the Seimas of the Republic of Lithuania of 20 September 2018 "On the Management of Demography, Migration and Integration Processes"). For the implementation of the Strategy, the Interinstitutional Action Plan for Demography, Migration and Integration Policy 2018–2030 for 2021–2023 (Interinstitutional Action Plan for the Implementation of the Strategy for Demography, Migration and Integration Policy 2018–2030 for 2020–2022 No. 1216) (hereinafter referred to as the plan). This plan sets measures to ensure that, in each educational institution where a returned or arrived pupil is studying, would be provided assistance and Lithuanian language courses for persons who have returned to Lithuania and arrived in Lithuania; to promote community initiatives of Lithuanian residents and foreign Lithuanians and foreigners in Lithuanian municipalities in order to help integrate persons who have come to the community or have returned to Lithuania. In order to improve the better integration of incoming persons, an integrated program of Lithuanian language education was prepared and approved (Order No. V-715 of the Minister of Education, Science and Sports of the Republic of Lithuania of 17 June 2019).
