- Indicate whether the laws on the minimum age for marriage have been adopted and revised in your country in accordance with international standards (18 years):

It should be noted that child marriage is a discriminatory practice, as girls can often marry at an earlier age than boys. Marriages among children violate a child's right to education, as they are more likely to drop out of school and children who are not in school are more likely to marry.

Yes ☒ No ☐

In accordance with Article 18 of the Marriage and Family Code of the Republic of Belarus, the Republic of Belarus has established a single marriage age for men and women - 18 years, coinciding with the age of a person to acquire civil and family capacity in full. Such a restriction is reasonable, since the general rules of just reaching the age of 18 stops the legal status of the child (Art. 1 of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, h. 2, Art. 1 of the Law of the Republic of Belarus of 19.11.1993 N 2570-the XII « On the Rights of the Child »), A minor from a legal and social point of view becomes an adult capable of marriage and family.

Indicate the sources of the relevant laws and regulations:

Code of the Republic of Belarus dated 09.07.1999 № 278-3 (ed. Dated 18.12.2019) “Code of the Republic of Belarus on Marriage and Family” (as amended and supplemented, entered into force on 01.08.2020)

Convention on the Rights of the Child (Concluded in New York on November 20, 1989) (ed. On December 21, 1995)

Law of the Republic of Belarus of 19.11.1993 № 2570-XII (ed. Of 11.05.2016) “On the rights of the child” (as amended and supplemented, which came into force on 01.07.2017)

2. Progress made in the realization of the right to education in the context of the SDGs 4

2.1 Preschool education

Preschool education is not directly covered by the Convention / Recommendation. However, the international community over time has increasingly recognizes the importance of education and early childhood education (ECCE). The Committee on the Rights of the Child initially recognized “the right to early childhood education from birth” (General Comment 7). This right was further reflected in the Moscow Framework for Action and Cooperation in 2010.⁸ In the current context of the 2030 Education Agenda, in line with SDG 4.2, States undertake to “provide at least one year of free and compulsory pre-school education”.

- Is free and compulsory pre-school education available in your country?

Yes, it is available. Preschool education is free. Parents (legal representatives of minors) pay only for food. The parental fee for feeding a child in preschool education institutions (PRD) is from 2.5 rubles to 5.04 rubles per day (respectively from 55.0 rubles to 110.88 rubles per month) depending on the age of the child and the mode of operation of the child. As of July 1, 2020, in the Republic of Belarus, the state expenses for the maintenance of one pupil in the UDO amount to 319.54 rubles per month, 3834.46 rubles per year.

☐ If pre-school education is compulsory, indicate the age of admission and the duration of training:

Preschool education is not compulsory. But all 5-year-old children should be covered by preparation for study in general secondary education institutions (state social standard: the norm of coverage of five-year-old children by preparation for study in general secondary education institutions is 100 %).

- List the laws and policies that make preschool education accessible to all, and describe the difficulties faced by your country's government in accessing preschool education. You can give brief quantitative information.⁸
